Case # 00-126959

Date Body was Found: October 8, 2000

ABOUT THIS CASE:

On October 8, 2000, the skeletal remains of a white female were found by duck hunters. The remains were located just off a frontage road adjacent to I-80 and the south shore of the Great Salt Lake.

Scientific testing indicates she resided in the intermountain west region. A DNA profile has been generated for this victim.

Recent testing indicates she could have died as early as 1994 but as recently as 2000. She is estimated to have been between 5' and 5' 3" tall, weighed 80 – 100 lbs., and was 17 – 20 years old at the time of her death. She was found wearing a bluish-purple three stringed choker necklace.
